MARRYING A MANAIC -S. Veral years ago a Miss Hill, of Mayvide, K ntucky, married a worthless fellow named Tem Champlain. He was extremely cruel to ber, and after enduring untold suffering from his conduct, her mind became affected, and she was removed to the L xington raylum, where the remained nearly a year. Becoming considerably better, she was di charged, and returned home. About two weeks ago she visited a friend of hers at the gold Samaritan Hospital, Cincinnati. While there she became as quainted with Dr Wilson, a physician connected with the institution. They became great friends, and firstly both fell deeply in love with each other. Miss Hill, soon after, became quite ill natured, and it was avident that incention and seein asterior had been asterior as a standard between the connection and the connection as a standard between the connection and the connection as a standard between the connection as a was evident that masnity had again attacked her.
She became quite violent and her lover Dector
Wilson, was obliged to manacle her to keep her from doing violence to herself and friends Gradually her mind became clost again, and she was allowed her freedom. One week after she became the wife of Wilson, who, notwiths andbecome the wife of Wilson, who, however and ing the advice of his friends, determined to marry her. The doctor resigned his position in the hespital, and, with his wife removed to Mayville. Mrs Wilson has again been attacked with insanity and her husband has been obliged to return her to the hopital.

GOOD REASONS FOR THE BOUTOR'S

We have for twelve months been prescribing ("Swift's Syphilize Specific") in the treatment of Syphilis and many other diseases for which it is recommended, and the results have been the support of the state of the most satisfactory, not having been disappointed in a single instance. We think, for all diseases it is recommended to cure it stands without a peer, and that all the medical profession with sooner or later, be forced to acknowledge it in the treatment of soyh lis as a sine qua non.
